

How to find your score

Please read carefully and follow the instructions: Go directly into your online application. It will ask that you provide the e-mail address and password you used to create your online application. It will then ask you to choose the date you took the test. If you originally signed up to take the afternoon exam that is what you need to click on even though there was only a morning test.